New international focus: PMR Forum - an overview of countries

PMRExpo, the leading European trade fair for professional mobile radio and control centres, is consistently pursuing its internationalisation programme. In 2015, for the first time, it will offer visitors from Germany and other countries the "PMR Forum - an overview of countries." It will thus take account of the steady increase in the number of international participants.

Developments and trends

At this new forum, an international panel of experts will provide an overview of the development of professional mobile radio and professional communication in France, Sweden, the Netherlands and the UK. The events will be devoted to the use of PMR, safety-critical communication, the development of LTE and trends in in-house radio. Pilot projects will also be presented, e.g. the use of PMR via LTE in France, the award of public safety services using public grid operators in the UK or developments in in-house radio in the Netherlands. The speakers will debate with the guests.

Experts from four countries

The chairman of the forum will be Koen Mioulet, Marketing Director, Ultimate Wireless Mobility (UIWiMo), from the Netherlands. The speakers will be Peter Clemons, Managing Director, Quixoticity Ltd. (United Kingdom), Thomas Hervieu, Associate Director, LD consult and delegates' representative, AGURRE (France) and Mats Larsson, CEO, MIC Nordic AB (Sweden).

This forum will be held in English.
